Central LIBRARYTECHNICAL SPECIFICATION FOR CLINICAL Key Flex DECISION SUPPORT SYSTEM

ClinicalKey is an online Medical Database published by ELSEVIER SCIENCE which comprises of undernoted features on one common platform Journals, Books, Clinical Overviews, Guidelines, Patient Education Handouts, Multimedia, Drug Monographs, Procedure Videos, Clinical Calculators etc.

Along with the Academic requirements, ClinicalKey fulfills Research Requirements of an Institution as it provides Full Text Articles backdated from 2007 along with Articles in Press for all its 980+ Journals as well as Clinical Trials.

All the 980+ Medical related Journals on ClinicalKey are SCOPUS & PUBMED Indexed.

ClinicalKey is also a useful platform for the Clinicians wherein it offers the most updated treat options & procedures (under Clinical Overviews) and can aid the Doctors & Faculties in their quality research and answer their clinical problems.

An in-built Power Point Presentation Maker on ClinicalKey can assist the faculties (in creating teaching modules) as well as Students (in making presentations, thesis etc.).

High Quality Copyright Images can be exported from ClinicalKey onto the Presentation and Hyperlinks of Videos can also be incorporated

A high score in Peer Perception can be achieved by creating an enabling environment for the students, faculty and ensuring equity in all respects.

ClinicalKey's comprehensive reference materials eases access to clinical knowledge across specialties which consequently help the physicians/faculties to do more innovative research and help the community.

More innovative research will invite more research investors which will improve their perception in employers, research investors, peer groups including academicians and the public, in addition to better competitiveness.
